WHO IS GOCAMP?

GoCamp is a premium, boutique camper van rental service, offering novice and seasoned adventurers alike a curated selection of unique vans. The company's mantra? Make camping easy.

The GoCamp fleet is select and curated, featuring the very best camper vans and the friendliest, most knowledgeable owners. GoCamp distinguishes itself from other camper van rental services by solely offering camper vans, and by providing personalized, on-call service throughout the entire process, from the listing and booking until the end of the journey.

With a wide variety of choices—from old school Volkswagen Vanagons and Eurovans to newer Mercedes-Benz Sprinters, Ford Transits, Dodge Ram ProMasters, Storyteller Overland MODE 4x4 adventure vans, specialty conversion vans, and many more makes, models and styles—no two GoCamp vans are alike. But all are fully outfitted with bedding, camp chairs, kitchen and cookware, and more, guaranteeing a worry-free rental experience and an adventurous road trip. Many vans are also pet-friendly, and some include additional services for the renter, such as assistance with trip planning.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

GoCamp is just like property-sharing services Vacasa and Airbnb, but for camper vans. Through this peer-to-peer platform, owners rent out their camper vans through the GoCamp website, and renters can experience the joy of vacationing all over the US in a van.

Because GoCamp camper vans are always owned by individuals, each vehicle is unique and lovingly maintained by its owner. All vans must meet strict maintenance and safety requirements before being listed on the GoCamp website.

To help van owners decide if renting their vehicle is right for them, GoCamp offers a handy Road to Renting series. This unique series provides resources and tools to increase your success, van owner case studies about creating passive income, and GoCamp's Top 10 Tips for Successfully Renting Out Your Camper Van.

“Live Free. Explore Endlessly. Tell Better Stories.”

“With the flexibility of working from home (due to the COVID-19 pandemic) we were thinking of buying our own van and wanted to first test it out and see if we liked it. The convenience of renting was great and we think we’ll just keep renting instead of buying our own.”

—Claire, GoCamp renter

“I have made more money renting out my van on GoCamp than I have renting out my Airbnb apartment. The return on investment is way better. And with a full-time job and two kids, I don’t have the time to actively manage my listing. That GoCamp takes care of all of that is a game-changer.”

—Eric, GoCamp van owner

“The rental experience with you was seamless, stress-free for first-timers and very easy. Our particular owner was fantastic and nicer than nice. Like, beyond nice.”

—David, GoCamp renter

“Top 3 reasons to go with GoCamp: Felt secure and safe, vetted quality vans, women-owned!”

—Muriel, GoCamp renter

“We’ve rented both a Ford Transit and a Dodge ProMaster from GoCamp. We’re about to build our own camper van and it has been really nice to be able to try out different makes and models.”

—Carmen, GoCamp renter

“GoCamp makes it super easy. In two words, hassle free. You’re crazy if you’re trying to do this without a partner like GoCamp at your side.”

—Ben, GoCamp van owner

“One of the best things about GoCamp is that the vans on the site are all really high-quality. We didn’t want to use some big corporate platform to rent our van. Deborah is a van owner herself, and that makes all the difference with regard to how the business is run. It’s been an excellent experience for us. We have access to the van when we want it, and when we’re not using it we make a little money.”

—Jordan, GoCamp van owner
